The musical score consists of four systems of two staves each (treble and bass clef). The first system starts with a treble clef staff containing a melodic line and a bass clef staff with a rhythmic accompaniment. The second system features a dense texture with many notes in the treble clef and a few notes in the bass clef. The third system continues with a similar texture. The fourth system ends with a final cadence and a '(Ped.)' instruction. A large watermark 'www.hickkeys.com' is overlaid diagonally across the score.
