The sheet music consists of six staves of musical notation for a single performer. The notation includes various note heads (solid, hollow, with stems, with tails), dynamic markings like f, mf, mp, edge, and center, and performance instructions like B.S. (Bass Side), R.S. (Right Side), and T.S. (Top Side). Fingerings are indicated by letters above the notes: R, L, I, and various combinations like RL, LR, RR, etc. Measure numbers 5, 9, 13, 18, 22, and 26 are marked with boxes. The music is set in common time (indicated by a '4') throughout.

This image shows a single staff of musical notation for a snare drum. The time signature is common time (indicated by '4/4'). The key signature has one sharp (F#). The tempo is indicated as 'f' (fortissimo). The dynamic 'f' is also placed at the beginning of the measure. The notation consists of vertical stems with 'x' marks above them, representing rim shots. The pattern repeats every two measures. The first measure starts with a rim shot ('x') on the first beat, followed by a solid note ('.') on the second beat. The second measure starts with a solid note ('.') on the first beat, followed by a rim shot ('x') on the second beat. This pattern continues throughout the section.

A musical score for the right hand featuring a treble clef, a common time signature, and a key signature of one sharp. The score consists of five measures. The first measure shows a rhythmic pattern of eighth and sixteenth notes. The second measure continues this pattern. The third measure begins with an eighth note followed by a sixteenth note, then returns to the previous pattern. The fourth measure follows a similar structure. The fifth measure concludes with the pattern. Below the staff, the letters 'R' and 'L' indicate which hand is playing, and 'mf' indicates a moderate dynamic.
