

TABLE OF CONTENTS

1. INTRODUCTION	6	MoF - Repetition groupings,
Foreword	6	Changed meter	50
Pitch and octave identification in this book	6	MoF - Changing phrasing,
Acknowledgements	7	Alternating Slow / Fast	51
2. MUSICIANSHIP	9	MoF - Cyclic repetition,
We are our own teachers	9	As fast as possible	52
Learning how to learn	9	MoF - From the end; Articulation variants	53
Phrasing	10	Shuffling notes for practice (Schubert Octet)	54
Playing melodies	11	6. SCALES &amp; ETUDES	55
Memorizing music	12	Improving your technique	55
Improvisation	14	Key relationships of studies	56
Learning tenor clef	15	Grace note scales	56
Distractions for the performer	16	Major and Minor Key Relationships of
Constructive self-criticism	18	Bassoon Studies	59
How to keep going	18	Transposing etudes	60
What's wrong with my bassoon?	21	Scales on off beats	62
3. WARMING-UP	23	Blues Scales in one octave	63
Why warm up?	23	7. PHYSICAL MATTERS	64
Warm-Up exercises (Dawson)	24	Exercises for physiological awareness	64
Cool-Down exercises (Dawson)	24	Posture: bring the bassoon to you	65
4. PRACTICING	26	Jaw motion	68
Practicing and your musical imagination	26	Holding / suspending the bassoon	69
How to enjoy practicing	26	Diagnosing problems	74
Planning practice time	27	8. BREATHING &amp; TONE	75
Limited practice time	28	Better breathing habits	75
No time to practice	30	Confident air	76
The practicing environment and		Air / pitch paradox	76
equipment	30	Imagine the sound before you play	77
What to practice	31	What the player hears and what the
Slow tempos, our ego and playing faster	32	listener hears are different	77
How many repetitions?	34	Embouchure or "The bassoon is a
Order of learning musical elements	35	wind instrument, not a lip instrument"	78
Point of focus / attention	35	Inhalation during diminishing rests	81
Two pathways from unknown to known	37	Short exhalation before playing	81
Isolating the tough spots	38	Vowel shapes	82
Efficient practicing	39	Exhaling then continuing to play	83
Various kinds of practicing	40	Circular breathing	83
Long term preparation (training?)	41	Jaw drop - air speed exercise	85
Defeating boredom during practice	42	Opening the low embouchure	85
Enemies of effective practicing	42	Playing long tones	87
How to break a bad habit (Solbrig)	43	Diaphragm vibrato is nonsense	88
5. PRACTICING STRATEGIES	45	Establishing vibrato	90
2 Excerpts from Mozart's Marriage of		The three g's	93
Figaro Overture ("MoF")	45	9. DYNAMICS	95
MoF - Continuous notes (no rests),		Dynamics and the bassoon	95
Grace noted	46	Establishing diminuendi	95
MoF - Re-barred	47	Using plateau dynamics	97
MoF - Changed rhythms	48	Developing a wider dynamic range	98
MoF - With omitted notes,		Playing on hard reeds	99
Sustaining individual notes	49

10. TUNING	100	Flicking	145
Maintaining pitch level	100	Articulation models for cyclic repetition	147
An important article	100	Checking half-hole fingerings	148
"Do You Play in tune?" (R. Sprenkle)	101	Anti-frog device	149
The most common tuning problem	102	Gillette's overbreak exercise	151
Tempered and justified tuning	103	Other overbreak exercises 1A & 1B	152
Follow the leader	105	Overbreak exercises 2A & 2B	153
Using tuning sequences (Sequence A)	107	Overbreak exercises 3A & 3B	154
Tuning sequence B	108	Finger exercises	154
Tuning sequence C	109	C-sharp review	156
Cadential tuning sequences	110	Trills and tremolos for the left-hand	157
Tuning to a drone pitch	111	Rhythmical trill models	157
Definitions: tuning, intonation and pitch	112	Finishing trills	157
		Trills and tremolos for the right hand	158
11. ARTICULATION	113	Negotiating high Ab / G#	159
What Leopold Auer said about		High register arpeggios	160
woodwind instruments	113	High register study in half-steps	161
Articulation	113
Defining first and repeated notes	115	15. REPERTOIRE	162
The word attack	115	Study for WAM 39 - IV	162
How to tongue faster and other problems	115	A workplan for finale to Beethoven's 4th
Fast notes - faster air	118	Symphony or "26 Notes to Glory"	163
Tongue muscle exercise	119	Studying and practicing Stravinsky's
Review of accent symbols	119	Rite of Spring solos	165
Tongue-air coordination	121	Re-barring for phrasing (Nielsen Quintet)	168
Coordinating single tonguing with		Recommended articulations for the finger motion	121	ending of von Weber's Andante
Coordinating single tonguing and fingers	122	and Hungarian Rondo, Op. 35	169
Establishing double tonguing	123	The Scheherazade cadenzas	171
A double tongue gambit	126
Coordinating fingers with double		16. REEDS	172
tonguing	127	Some thoughts about reeds	172
Tonguing trade-off	127
Tonguing trade-off patterns	129	17. REFERENCE	175
		Selected and Annotated Bibliography	175
12. RHYTHMIC ACCURACY	130
How important is rhythmic accuracy?	130	I. BOOKS	175
Metronome games	130	A. General	175
Rhythmic repetition	131	B. Improving Performing
2/4 tick check	132	Effectiveness	177
6/8 tick check	133	C. Reed-making	178
		D. Music for Bassoon	178
13. FINGERINGS	134	E. Maintenance and Care	179
Basic principles of bassoon fingering	134
There is no such thing as a fake fingering	134	II. METHODS, STUDIES AND EXCERPT
Learning new fingerings	136	COLLECTIONS	180
Rotating between new and old fingerings	138	A. Methods	180
Fingering flash cards	138	B. Scale Studies	181
Click tricks for learning fingerings	139	C. Studies/Etudes	182
Fingering Eb3	141	D. Orchestral Excerpts	183
Choosing fingerings for F#4	142	E. Fingering Charts	184
14. TECHNIQUE	144	About the author	185
Independence of elements	144		