

Contents

Preface ix

Acknowledgments xi

Part 1. A Style Is Born 1

Part 2. What Is Music? 9

Fun? 11 Magic? 14 Feeling? 16 Talent? 18
Selflessness? 22 Professionalism 24 Motion 28

Part 3. Note Grouping 29

Sound Writing (?) 31 What Is Note Grouping? 35
Basic Grouping 38 Harmonic Grouping 43
Rhythmic Grouping 46 Motivic Grouping 56
Range and Scaling 68 The Tabuteau Number System 71
Why Does Grouping Sound Natural? 79

Part 4. The Larger Picture 83

Sound Connection 85 Type and Function 98
Skeletal Structure 122 What Is Phrasing? 130
Repetition 137 What Is Line? 141
The Four Elements of Music 147

Part 5. Wind Techniques 161

Breathing 163 The Long Tone 166 The Singing Interval 170
The Fingers 173 Scales 176 Using the Wind 179 Articulation 184

Part 6. Controversy 195

Tone 197 Intonation 202 Vibrato 211 Ornaments 219
Was There a Baroque Style of Playing? 237 Music Speaks 251
Portato: Herald of a New Romanticism 257
“Technique” vs. “Musicality” 264

Part 7. The Profession 269

Practicing 271 Auditioning 277 Orchestral Protocol 279
Performing 283 Accompanying 289 Teaching 294

Contents

Part 8. The Search 297

Postscript 301*Appendix 1.Recommended Recordings* 303*Appendix 2.Further Study* 347*Appendix 3.To Clip or Not to Clip* 351*Notes* 359*Bibliography* 365*Index* 367*About the Author* 375