LEGEND

JOHN ALEXANDER DURR

Originally from the Rochester NY area, John Alexander (Alex) Durr studied at the Eastman Community Music School (ECMS), through grade school with Ruth Cahn and Primo Musumeci and received diplomas in Percussion, Music Theory and Jazz Theory.

While at the Crane School of Music at SUNY Potsdam (NY), he studied with Professors James Petercsak and Catherine Meunier, and received a B.M. in Music Education and a Certificate in Percussion Performance as well as the 2014 Crane Percussion Alley Award for excellence in performance and teaching. He currently teaches music at various schools in the Rochester area, teaches percussion lessons to private students, and performs with the Penfield Symphony Orchestra and, on occasion, with the Orchestra of Northern New York. His original pieces and arrangements have been performed in solo recitals and ensemble concerts at the Crane School of Music.
