

Carl Philipp Emanuel BACH

SONATA

SONATA per il Flauto traverso solo senza Basso appeared in 1763 in the fourth-quarter publication of Musikalisches Mancherley, a musical quarterly printed in Berlin. In transcribing the work for the trombone, I have changed the original key of A minor to C minor and have revised the order of the movements to a more typical fast-slow-fast pattern.
(There appears to have been some confusion on the part of the original publisher – the last movement was printed as a separate piece!) Dynamic markings in movements two and three are entirely original as are most of the articulations throughout. I have added a few slurs, an occasional breath mark, and suggestions for alternate positions.
